Ways to Use the Building Mats

- There are two ways to use the building mats. First, children can use building materials to create shapes on the mats. Second, children can use drawing materials like dry erase markers, washable markers, or washable crayons to draw the shapes.
 - If you are asking children to draw the shapes, then you will need to laminate the mats or place them in Wipe and Write pockets. This will allow you to clean off the shapes and use the mats over again.
- The mats can be printed on a poster printer to create a larger creation space. The mat that has open spaces for shapes would be the best one to create a poster with.
- The shape blank mat allows you or your children to draw in the windows and door shapes they choose. They could also place a pattern block in the blank spaces to show what shapes should be used.

Possible Shape Building Materials

- Playdough snakes bent to make shapes
- Solid playdough shapes
- Pipe cleaners bent into shapes
- Wood paddles for ice cream cups
