Information on the Printables

There are two different versions of each printable. There is a printable with a large number of candies. Each of the other two have fewer pieces of candy.

Children are invited to count how many pieces of each candy is in the box. Then they will record how many times each piece appears in the box.

Ways to Count the Candy

- Count and Record – Children can count each piece of candy, remember how many there are a record it. Then they will record how many pieces of each type of candy there are.

- Count, Cover, Stack, and Record- Children can place a cube on each piece of candy that is the same. Each piece of candy will need a different colored cube. Next, they can stack the cubes that represent specific type of candy and count them. Finally, they will write down how many pieces of type of candy there are.
